...RESPONDENTS

ORAL ORDER: (per Hon'ble Sri Justice P. Swaroop Reddy)

This writ petition is taken up on the basis of the Telegram dated 12.08.2007 issued by the petitioner addressed to the Hon'ble the Chief Justice, alleging illegal detention of Kum. Maheshwari and Smt. Sunitha by the Police, Mugulpura.

The Station House Officer, Mogulpura Police Station, the first respondent herein filed counter affidavit stating that initially a case in Crime No.120 of 2007 for the offence under Section 381 IPC was registered against alleged detenue No.1 at the instance of T. Neeraj Kumar Singh S/o. Dr.T.Ghanshyam Singh Varma, in whose house both the alleged detenus were working as maid servants. During the course of investigation, the Investigating Officer examined alleged detenue No.1, namely, Maheshwari, and recorded her statement, which reveal that alleged detenue No.2 namely, T. Sunitha @ Soni, has committed the offence. On the basis of the said statement alleged detenue No.2 was arrested and produced before the VIII Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Nampally, and thereafter she was released on regular bail on 1.09.2007. It was also stated in the counter that in the charge sheet the alleged detenue No.1 was shown as an eyewitness while arraying the alleged detenue No.2 as the accused.

Thus both the alleged detenus are available. In view of the same, nothing remains in the writ petition. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed at the stage of admission.
